

Agenda 2030

from a Southern perspective

- a serial of events with Marta Benavides

Marta Benavides is an internationally known peace activist from El Salvador. In 2005 she was among the 1,000 women nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. She was one of the co-chairs of the Global Call to Action Against Poverty (GCAP) and sits on various ecumenical and secular boards at the international level. She continues to work for a culture of peace in her country and the world, through various initiatives at the UN, and with civil society movements.
